GOOD LUCK CAROL

Carol Heinel, a long-time Brittany person and a big supporter of our club, has moved to Kansas to be closer to her grandchildren. She has been on the board of directors and has served as Field Trial Secretary in many events.

Her farewell party was attended by many long-time Brittany friends with their warm thoughts and best wishes for Carol. The club presented her with a Chickadee figurine in appreciation for all of her contributions. Carol will be missed and we wish her well.

— Bret Lindback

SCVBC SUMMER TRAINING SESSIONS

The summer training sessions has quickly come and gone. Four Brooks training grounds was a wonderful place to train and run the dogs. People who came had the opportunity to train their dogs on their own, with help from other members, or one on one sessions with a professional trainer.

Train with a Pro. Chad Hines, from Willow Creek Kennels in Randall, Minnesota, was available at all three training sessions (July 10, 24 and August 1). Chad had a variety of dogs to help from a 3-month old puppy (Denali owned by Eric Hromatka) to a 10-year old rookie bird dog (Nikki owned by Jeff Kummer); and not only Brittany's, but also German shorthair.

Chad demonstrated training techniques to the group, pictured below. Pictured at right, he demonstrated the use of a check chord for whoa on Elmer's dog, Libby. Chad's advice for trainers is to take it easy on the dogs especially the young pups. Keep training fun for you and your dog.

Chad has written helpful training articles for publication. You can read copies of these articles in his website ... <http://www.willowcreekkennels.com/articles.html>

If you would like to contact Chad for more help on training your dog, or have specific problems or questions, you can call him at 320-745-2331, or E-mail him at willowcreekkennels@hotmail.com.

Thanks Chad for all your help.

Thanks to Brian Lange who did great job of organizing the training sessions.
