MARCH MINUTES

Members present: Brett Lindback, Mary Tyson, Susan Januschka, Denise Koslowski, Steve Ralph and John Lindback.

Secretary's report- None read – Denise Koslowski filling in for Mark Dinsmore for Secretary.

Treasury's report – Fran Marier – absent – Brett informed us balance in check book around $2000 which is better than last yr. due to banquet turn out was a success.

OLD BUSINESS

● Hats are ordered – They will be available at our next function, Fun Run March 31st at Four Brooks. Price will be $12.50 for blaze orange and $15.00 for dual colored (tan and dark green)

● Winter Hunt – Four groups had signed up but due to bad road conditions and the inclement weather 2 ended up canceling. Fun was had by all, including the dogs. Discussion is shelved to a later date on continuing the Winter Hunt and /or how to improve upon the experience and make it a club social event.

● Question was asked by Mary for a list of first aid items for your dog's field first aid kit which was presented to us by Veterinarian Jeff Johnson DMV at our banquet. This list is available on our web site.

NEW BUSINESS

● Trailer insurance for our dog trailer to be paid by club in the amount of $12.50 a year.

● Fun Run – March 31st – Need people to sign up- Another notice will go out to all members and other clubs. We do need a head count as soon as possible. Chad Hines, trainer, will be conducting the training sessions and providing the birds. Contact: John Lindback by March 25th at 651-269-2993 or John.Lindback@Ulteig.com

— Doug Lodermeier

WINTER WONDERLAND

Shadow & Toby on their rounds - Bud & Duff had gone first to 'break trail'. I decided it was just too pretty out not to take a few pictures. Course I wasn't thinking such thoughts when I'd already blown out the driveway twice before noon.
— Diane Hedstrom
